Exquisitely, unforgettably yours

RECEPTION ROOMS

Whether you are considering a lavish wedding or an intimate occasion for immediate family, The Savoy's impressive rooms and spaces allow for any style of event.

The iconic Lancaster Ballroom accommodates up to 300 guests for a dinner dance, while the River Room is ideal for a glamorous cocktail reception for up to 400 guests. The Abraham Lincoln room can host a ceremony of up to 300 guests or dinner and dancing for up to 120.

The Savoy's six private dining rooms are able to host from ten to 50 guests, while some of the signature suites, many of which overlook the River Thames, offer the perfect setting for small ceremonies and receptions. Our glamorous Royal Suite sits across half of the hotel's entire fifth floor and can accommodate a civil ceremony, cocktail reception and private drinks and dinner against the spectacular river view backdrop.

The Savoy's creative team of chefs is able to offer à la carte menus for any number of guests and can create something entirely bespoke for you. The Savoy also holds a kosher catering license.

IOLANTHE

A beloved Savoy original.

Iolanthe is elegantly panelled in light oak and suitable for dining and business meetings. It was a favourite of Sir Winston Churchill who regularly lunched here with his Cabinet during World War II. So that he could have a nap after lunch, a bedroom at the hotel was kept on permanent standby for him. This was one of the original private dining rooms when The Savoy opened in 1889.

PINAFORE

A distinguished setting, steeped in history.

This is one of the Savoy's original private dining rooms. The décor, featuring wooden panelling, was designed by Basil Ionides in 1926. Views towards the Thames provide a distinguished setting.

Pinafore is well known as the place where 'The Other Club' meets regularly while Parliament is in session. The club was founded by Sir Winston Churchill and Lord Birkenhead in 1910 for distinguished figures from the world of politics and the media.

LIKE NEVER BEFORE

THE MOMENT I KNEW...

Everyone knows the moment they knew. For some it was a big bang, with cocktails and fireworks. For others it was a subtle gesture that made the world rose tinted forever.

Boodles creates unique jewellery that combines traditional craft values with extraordinary design and remarkable gemstones, providing inspiring jewellery for a special occasion.

The Savoy has enjoyed a long partnership with British fine jeweller Boodles, who has an exclusive boutique in the hotel's Front Hall. The team will be delighted to welcome you into their store to enjoy a glass of champagne over a tailored consultation, whether you are there to choose your wedding bands together, or find the perfect pair of earrings to wear on the big day.
